

THE CITY OF SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

MAYOR DOMENIC J. SARNO

HOME OF THE BASKETBALL HALL OF FAME

PROCLAMATION

Be it known that the City of Springfield, proudly recognizes Adam Lyon for his continued service to the Greater Springfield community through music education, military service, and live performance. As a United States Army musician, public-school music teacher, private music instructor, and founder of the veteran-owned brass band The Oompa Meisters, Adam has worked to make live music accessible and engaging while supporting community celebrations throughout Western Massachusetts. Through The Oompa Meisters, Adam has created paid performance opportunities for military veterans, using music to strengthen community, honor service, and bring people together. His work reflects the belief that service does not end when the music starts. Be it further known that the City of Springfield is proud to join Adam Lyon's family, friends, colleagues, and the community in recognizing his outstanding contributions, mentorship, leadership, and steadfast commitment to making our city a stronger and more vibrant place.

Therefore, I, Domenic J. Sarno, Mayor

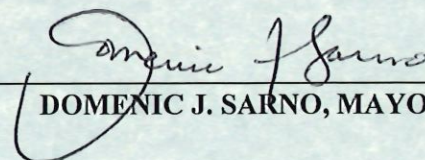

Of the City of Springfield, do hereby proclaim

Tuesday, July 21th, 2026 as

“ADAM E. LYON DAY”

In the great City of Springfield, and I strongly encourage every resident to be aware of this event and participate suitably in its observance.

DOMENIC J. SARNO, MAYOR

*"Thank you for educating - inspiring & making beautiful music - continued success
& good health! God Bless."*
